

William Fridley

William Fridley is a professor emeritus at Southeastern Oklahoma State University . Dr. Fridley is Professor Emeritus of Educational Instruction and Leadership, earning his doctorate in Social and Philosophical Foundations of Education from The Ohio State University in 1996. Along the way he earned a master's in theology and a master's in divinity. He earned a BS in Education from The Ohio State University in 1984.

Dr. Fridley was a member of the Southeastern faculty for 23 years, retiring in 2022.

His classroom teaching and mentoring were assets in establishing the University's education program as one of the top of its kind in the nation.

On campus, Fridley served in such roles as Chair of the Personnel Policies Committee and Member of the Executive Committee of the Faculty Senate, Archivist for the Faculty Senate, and offered service through the American Association of University Professors.

He also represented SE by offering numerous national, regional, and statewide scholarly presentations.